Tax Managers & Senior Managers Career Progression Opportunities

Cooper Partners is a boutique taxation and accounting firm with a great reputation.

We have a strong portfolio of premium clients that you will be responsible for and offer a great environment for staff.

In order to be considered for this role, we are seeking a qualified CPA/CA individual who has gained extensive tax advisory experience within a professional services firm and/or large corporation in a senior role. This role includes a high level of advisory work as well as reviewing of compliance. You will be reporting directly to the directors of the firm and will be intensively involved in maintaining the technical standards of the practice in Corporate and International Tax.

Cooper Partners is currently recruiting highly qualified tax professions to join our dynamic and expanding team. You will be advising an impressive range of clients, from large private groups to multinational companies on technical tax issues such as tax consolidation, taxation of financial arrangements, mergers and acquisitions and capital gains tax. Having international tax experience would be an advantage.

You are an excellent people manager, a creative and lateral thinker with outstanding technical and interpersonal skills who puts people first.

Excellent written and oral communication and presentation skills are required.

At Cooper Partners we are committed to fast tracking your career development and offer you challenging and diverse assignments within a supportive team environment.
